Community Fund Collections Reach 40 Per Cent of Goal

Pickaway County Community Fund collections today reached $11,480, just 40 per cent of the $28,700 goal.

There is just one more "official" day of the drive. However, it is expected that some "call backs" will have to be made later.

All solicitors are urged to finish up their calls today and report to fund headquarters by noon tomorrow to wind up the drive.

Although only 40 per cent of the goal has been reached, fund headquarters reported that many solicitors have not reported as yet, even in the business, industrial and special groups solicitations which were to have been completed by last week.

Residential collections have been under way this week and no reports have been received yet from house-to-house volunteer workers.

FIVE AGENCIES, which operate-throughout Pickaway County, are supported by the Community Fund. They are the Salvation Army, Boy Scouts, Youth Canteen, Girl Scouts and Red Cross. The agencies exist on funds collected in the Community Fund campaign.

If the campaign falls short of its "rock bottom" goal of $28,700, the activity of these agencies will have to be curtailed next year.

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Mason, campaign co-chairmen, today asked all solicitors to finish up their calls and report tomorrow. They said that the Circleville Pumpkin Show is due in about two weeks and that most Community Fund work will have to be completed by that time.

It is urgent that reports be made immediately, they said. The campaign headquarters reminded all Pickaway County citizens that if no solicitor has called, a check or cash may be mailed to the Pickaway County Community Fund, American Hotel, N. Court St., Circleville.

The very existence of the five fund agencies depends on the present fund solicitation. Support of these worthwhile agencies and the services they perform are necessary to the entire county, they said.

Youth Canteen Cuts Juvenile Problems

225 Teen-agers Take Part in Good, Clean Fun

The fourth in a series of stories sponsored by the Pickaway County Community Fund.

Clean fun—that's the reason for the Pickaway County Youth Canteen.

The canteen, run by youth for youth, is one of the five agencies financed by the Pickaway County Community Fund.

The canteen is located above the First National Bank at the corner of Court and Main Sts. It was one of the first youth centers founded in Ohio and probably is the oldest continuous operating youth center in the state.

The canteen is operated by the youth themselves, with the guidance of a parent's organization, presently headed by Eugene Barthelms.

THERE ARE five rooms in the canteen. The "Rhythm Room" is a large open section of the canteen, dedicated to dancing. It contains a juke box and piano for the musical amusement of the members.

"Reading Room" is for games, reading and television viewing—all quiet forms of relaxation for the members.

"Varsity Room" has a food bar and booths and table tennis activity.

There is an attractive powder room for girls and a small but adequate rest room for the boys.

The canteen is open four nights a week from 7:30 p. m. to 10:30 p. m. At all times there is a paid hostess on hand. Parents also chaperone at the canteen on special occasions, such as parties and dances.

Membership in the Youth Canteen currently is about 225. Average attendance during the week is between 40 and 90 boys and girls. Since organization of the canteen the Circleville Police Department has commented that juvenile troubles have been cut sharply and that there is very little delinquency locally. They say that youthful rowdiness and boisterousness is at a minimum on nights when the canteen is operating—a vivid illustration of the worth of the Canteen.

The canteen budget calls for about $2,978 for next year. That amount is just over 10 per cent of the $28,700 goal of the Community Fund. If the goal is not reached the vital, worthwhile activities of the Youth Canteen will have to be curtailed.

Ike, Golf Clubs, Head For His Farm

GETTYSBURG, Pa. — President Eisenhower — with his golf bags—flew here today for a week-end at his farm home.

Taking off from Washington at 9:18 a. m. in his two-engine plane, he landed at Gettysburg Airport at 9:44. He drove quickly away in the direction of the farm.

Apparently the flight was the result of a sudden decision. The White House gave newsmen only a few minutes notice.

Only Col. Walter Tkach, a White House physician, accompanied Eisenhower. The White House said Mrs. Eisenhower would make the trip by auto later today.

U.S. Asian Flu Cases Said Totals 422,650

WASHINGTON — Asian flu cases in the nation nearly doubled again last week, going up an estimated 200,000 new cases to make a total of 422,650 since early June.

Reporting this today, the Public Health Service said the estimates cover the period only through last Saturday, do not include 150,000 new cases in New York City this week. Eighteen deaths have been reported.

Bloodmobile Here Monday

The American Red Cross Bloodmobile will make a call here from 11 a. m. to 5 p. m. Monday. It will be at the Methodist Church.

Donors are requested to visit the Methodist Church between those hours, or call 336 for an appointment if your time is limited.

Quota for this visit of the Bloodmobile is 150 pints—a goal Pickaway County has not reached for several months. Your blood is needed, now.

Polish Reds Curb Students

Anti-Stalin College Newspaper Suppressed

WARSAW — Communist authorities today threatened "severe sanctions" against students who took part in Warsaw's first anti-government riot since Wladyslaw Jomulka came to power.

Riot police backed by worker militia men battled about 2,000 students in a melee of tear gas, rubber truncheons and bricks Thursday night outside the Warsaw Polytechnic School. The students were protesting suppression of their newspaper.

About 30 students were reported under arrest. Ten police were injured by bricks rained down from windows of a student boarding house and by paving stones hurled in the streets. Several students were treated for effects of tear gas and bruises from truncheons.

All morning papers carried this warning to the students:

"It is understood the rector of Polytechnic has said severe sanctions will be taken against participants (in the demonstration), including expulsion from college."

THE DEMONSTRATION was the first break between the Communist party and its officially sponsored Union of Socialist Youth.

The Polytechnic students were in the forefront of the surge for freedom that produced the downfall of the Stalinist government and party hierarchy last year and the return of Gomulka to government leadership.

As Communist party secretary, Gomulka had charted a more moderate course after taking over 12 months ago following the "bread and freedom" uprising of workers in Poznan. But the government ruled the student paper's attacks on Stalinism had gone too far.

U.S. Pushing Western Plan

No Other Arms Deal Getting Yank Backing

UNITED NATIONS — The United States was expected to ask the U.N. Assembly today to endorse Western disarmament proposals by instructing the Disarmament subcommittee to renew negotiations on the basis of the Western plan for arms cuts — and no others.

Informed diplomats said the United States would have no part of amendments asking the Assembly to endorse Indian, Japanese and Soviet proposals for suspension of nuclear weapon tests immediately.

The West has said it would stop atomic tests only if the Soviet Union agreed to a conversion at the same time — under international supervision — of all atomic production to peaceful purposes.

The United States compromised in the Assembly last February by agreeing that the world forum should recommend all disarmament proposals — Western, Soviet and others — for the subcommittee's "prompt attention." As a result, a disarmament resolution passed unanimously.

BUT NOW, the diplomats said, the United States feels that any such catch-all endorsement would equate the latest Soviet proposals with the latest Western proposals and give the former more credit than the Americans think they deserve.

Britain, Canada, France and the United States put the new Western plan before the Soviet Union Aug. 29 in subcommittee talks in London. The talks recessed in deadlock Sept. 6.

2 Surviving Quints Reported Doing OK

TOULON, France — Roland and Michele, the two surviving Christoffe quintuplets, spent an excellent night in hospital incubators, doctors reported today.

The quintuplets were born three months prematurely to Mr. and Mrs. Camille Christoffe Wednesday. A boy and two girls died within 12 hours.

ANKARA, Turkey — Syria's new minister to Turkey arrived here today and expressed hope for better relations between the two countries.

Little Rock Quiet Again, but Accord Still Not Sighted

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. — An escort of soldiers encountered no trouble in taking nine Negro students into Central High School for a 10th day of integrated classes.

About 100 white students were massed before the front entrance of the school. Three or four of them displayed small Confederate flags but there was none of the hooting nor jeering that marked the last two days.

All the negroes were present today. Thursday one of the six Negro girls was absent because of illness.

There was no sign of the 75 white students who walked out of Central High Thursday in what was scheduled as a mass demonstration but turned out to be a flop. School officials had threatened them all with suspension.

Opposing sides were still deadlocked today in their efforts to solve the integration crisis. No one had come up with a new plan under which federal troops might be removed.

GOV. LUTHER Hodges of North Carolina, chairman of a Southern group of governors who met with President Eisenhower in an unsuccessful effort to solve the problem, simply said:

"We've got to have a few days to let this thing cool off."

He urged both the President and Arkansas Gov. Orval Faubus to give ground.

"The stakes at Little Rock are too high for men of good will and patriotism to lose hope," he said.

The nine Negroes entered the school Sept. 25 under guard of federal troops flown here under order ers of Eisenhower. Paratroopers of the 101st Airborne Division used bayonets to break up crowds of white demonstrators. That was the last of the demonstrations until Thursday's student walkout.

Little Rock Quiet Again, but Accord Still Not Sighted

Inside the school Thursday, the paratroopers took over again from National Guardsmen. This military change apparently took place because white students roughed up some of the Negro students in the two previous days. Guardsmen remained on duty on the campus.

School authorities said no corridor trouble developed Thursday.

The governor, in a press meeting, stood by his earlier position that he had given sufficient assurances to Eisenhower after the working out of a compromise plan for removal of federal troops.

Eisenhower has maintained that Faubus' statement that he would not obstruct integration orders was insufficiently firm.

Faubus said the compromise proposal, worked out with help of four Southern governors, asked him to surrender what he called "my discretionary powers as governor."

HE CLAIMED the federal government wants "complete and unconditional surrender" from him.

Eisenhower said two circumstances could justify withdrawal of the soldiers.

One would be firm assurances that integration orders would not be obstructed and that peace and order would be maintained at the school. The other would be development of peaceful conditions to the point where local police could control the situation.

Two-Pole Global Flight Hits Snag

WASHINGTON — Plans were announced today for a round-the-world flight over both the North and South poles, but the project quickly hit a snag over fuel supplies in the Antarctic.

The privately financed project, to be named in honor of the late explorer Adm. Richard E. Byrd, called for refueling at McMurdo Sound, site of the U.S. air base supporting American scientific studies in the south polar region.

The Navy, which is running Operation Deepfreeze there, said Asst. Secretary Garrison Norton rejected a request for the refueling service.

Norton wrote the sponsors that it has been necessary to hold fuel supplies at McMurdo to the minimum required for Navy and Air Force operations related to the scientific studies. He said additional supplies could be provided only for such emergencies as search and rescue flying.

It would be the first such crossing of the bottom and top of the world in a continuous series of hops, said Cmdr. Frederick G. Dustin, USN, Washington, an Antarctic veteran and close friend of Byrd's. Byrd had flown over both poles in separate expeditions.

Dustin said the flight, financed by a group of businessmen, is scheduled to leave Boston about Nov. 10.

Dustin announced this planned itinerary:

Boston to Trinidad, to Buenos Aires, to Punta Arenas, Chili, and McMurdo Sound. Then to Christchurch, New Zealand; Melbourne and Dwarwin, Australia; Manila; Tokyo; Anchorage, Alaska; and then over the North Pole to Thule, Greenland. From there to London, Frankfurt, Paris and back to Boston. The flight is expected to take at least two weeks.

Whites, Negroes Open Drive To End Philadelphia Violence

PHILADELPHIA — A campaign to help the victims of teenage violence and to rid this "city of brotherly love" of racial bitterness gathered force today.

Public agencies and aroused individuals, white and Negro, joined in an expressed determination to end "these senseless fights before more young people are hurt."

The quoted words are those of Mrs. Clara Baldwin, a Negro in her late 40s with a family of her own and a strong sense of social responsibility.

Mrs. Baldwin, cheered on by city officials and welfare groups, earlier this week started canvassing her North Philadelphia neighborhood to raise money for the family of Billy Fluck, 15-year-old white boy, who was stabbed in an attack upon him by several Negro youths.

The boy's spinal column was all but severed by a knife, causing paralysis of both legs. Doctors fear he may never walk again.

LIVING ONLY a few blocks from the Flucks, Mrs. Baldwin said she was horrified by what had happened. In less than three days, she and her husband Thomas rallied to their efforts more than 100 volunteer solicitors, most of them Negroes.

Detroit Boss Wins by 3-1

Ouster by AFL-CIO Viewed as Certainty

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. — James R. Hoffa today won election as president of the scandal-scattered Teamsters Union by a margin of well over 3 to 1 over two opponents pledged to clean up the organization.

The 44-year-old Detroit union leader took over command of the nation's biggest labor organization despite scandal in which he himself has been heavily involved.

With nearly two-thirds of the voting among Teamster convention delegates completed, Hoffa had more than half the total 1,754 votes to be cast.

At that point Hoffa had 878, against 98 for Thomas J. Hagerty of Chicago and 192 for William A. Lee, also of Chicago.

Lee and Hagerty had campaigned as cleanup candidates, but the convention delegates chose to reject the mass of union corruption charges against Hoffa, retiring union President Dave Beck and other high teamster bosses.

HOFFA'S ELECTION as Beck's successor as leader of the 1½-million-member union was expected to bring its ouster from the parent AFL-CIO. The federation has labeled Hoffa as corrupt and called for his ouster.

In a sudden move made Thursday, the decks were cleared for Hoffa to take over the presidency Oct. 15, a month and a half before Beck's term expires Dec. 1. And Hoffa had told newsmen that "we will fight to remain in the AFL-CIO." He made it clear he will challenge AFL-CIO President George Meany in Meany's own bailiwick over the ultimatum to the Teamsters to get rid of corrupt influences or face expulsion from the labor combine.

Beck, Hoffa and two other Teamster officials are charged with various counts of misconduct, including misuse of union funds, by the AFL-CIO and the Senate Rackets Committee.

Hoffa plans to carry an aggressive defense to local labor federations from coast to coast, many of which are Teamster strongholds. He said the Wayne County (Detroit) Federation of Labor already has asked the AFL-CIO to reverse its condemnation of Hoffa as a corrupt labor leader.

Similar pressure from other local federations on the parent AFL-CIO would not be surprising, Hoffa said.

The move to give the 44-year-old Detroit almost immediate control of the scandal-scattered Teamsters was as unexpected as it was carefully arranged.

U.S. GI Kills Korean In Hunting Accident

SEOUL — The U. S. Army said today M. Sgt. Joseph E. Woodin, Fayetteville, N. C., fatally wounded a Korean woman Thursday in a hunting accident.

Woodin fired at a pheasant that flew from a clump of bushes. The Army report said he heard moaning and found Kim Ho He, 60, behind a bush. She had been struck by shotgun pellets and died while being taken to a hospital.

Parking Lot Work Begins

Work is under way on a new 48-space parking lot on W. Franklin St. It is hoped the parking lot will be ready in time for the huge Pumpkin Show crowds.

George Van Camp has the contract for construction of the lot, which is part of a program to provide more off-street parking for Circleville shoppers.

The lot is being financed by a group of merchants and businessmen, headed by Paul Johnson. Total cost of the lot is expected to be about $35,000.

Tax Receipts Take Big Jump

Weekly Figure
Second Highest

Sales tax receipts in Pickaway County totaled $8,318.68 for the week ending September 21, according to a report released today by State Treasurer Roger W. Tracy.

The figure was the second highest weekly total of the fiscal year which began July 1. The total was 27 per cent higher than the preceding week of this year and 34 per cent above collections for the corresponding week of 1956.

Local sales tax receipts for the first 12 weeks of the fiscal year are now 2.4 per cent above collections for the same period of last year. Receipts from the sale of the prepaid tax stamps in the entire state totaled $3.9 million for the September 21 week, an increase of 1.95 per cent over the same week of last year.

Police Force Plans Blood Donations for Local Man

Chief of Police Elmer Merriman today made a request for blood for Leonard Caudill, 158 Hayward Ave., a patient in University Hospital, Columbus.

Chief Merriman said members of his force plan to donate and expressed hope that other residents would answer his request for donors. Persons willing to give may do so when the Bloodmobile visits here Monday at the Methodist Church. The mobile unit will accept all donors from 11 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Donors giving blood for Caudill are urged to list their names and the name of the patient. The blood received for Caudill will be stored in a bank to replace plasma already used and that which will be needed in the future.

Burglars Get $40 At Trailer Court

Burglars who entered a wash house at the Elsea Trailer Court north of Circleville early Thursday morning made off with a coin machine containing approximately $40 in change.

According to Deputy Sheriff John Wolford, burglars entered the building and removed a "mark time" meter on one of the automatic washers. Most of the money in the meter was in quarters. Deputy Wolford reported that Mrs. Elizabeth Morgan, who lives at the trailer court, was awakened by a noise at about 4 a. m. She said she looked around the area but didn't see anything amiss.

The burglary was reported by Robert Elsea, owner of the trailer court.

Train Kills London Boy at Crossing

LONDON (U.S.A.)—An eastbound Pennsylvania passenger train today killed a 7-year-old boy on his way to school.

The boy, Jerry Burt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Burt of London, was with a group of school children waiting for a westbound train to pass, Police Chief Gorman Clark reported. He said the youngsters stood too close to the east-bound tracks. The locomotive struck Jerry and barely missed the other children.

W. S. White of Columbus, the conductor, said the train was traveling about 25 m.p.h.

Commissioners OK Speed Signs On Whisler Road

In action taken this week the Pickaway County Commissioners authorized county engineer Henry McCrady to purchase and erect speed limit signs to be placed on State Route 56 in Whisler. The signs will be in conformity with a speed limit revision authorized by the State Highway Department for a portion of the state highway 27 of a mile west of Jackson Road to a point .02 of a mile east of Jackson Road.

The new speed limit, reduced from 60 miles per hour, will be 35 miles per hour.

In other recent action the county commissioners transferred $1,604.53 from the Courthouse and Jail fund to the Sheriff's Department Fund. The transfer was made to compensate for an amount of bills incurred without available funds by the Sheriff's Department during 1956.

New Honor Society members are: Barbara Sieverts, Barbara Samuel, Pamela Teal, Calvin Ellis, Phyllis McCoard, John Troutman, Bettina Houghton, Deena Musselman, Patricia Williams, and Betty Huffines.

Selection for membership in the Honor Society is based on the qualities of character, leadership and scholarship.

Antioch Dedicates New Union Building

YELLOW SPRINGS (U.S.A.)—Antioch college observed the 105th anniversary of its founding today with dedication of its new $767,000 Antioch Union building.

The new building is a contemporary brick-and-glass structure with a central one-story area joining two-story east and west wings. The west wing is the Antioch Inn with rooms for overnight guests of the college. The central area houses a cafeteria, and the east wing includes three student lounges, offices of the community government and quarters of the campus newspaper and radio.

Grandmother Kills Boy, 9; Then Herself

LOS ANGELES (U.S.A.)—A 9-year-old boy who had been missing since Wednesday was found shot to death in an abandoned house Thursday. Lying dead next to him was his grandmother who wanted him as her own. It was murder-suicide.

Young Ronald Barrett White was found with a bullet in his back. The grandmother, Mrs. Allene Durston, 58, had a bullet in her head. A pistol was clutched in her hand.

San Marino Now Feeling Blockade Pinch

SAN MARINO (U.S.A.)—Italy's tight blockade threatened today to starve San Marino's Red leaders into submission. They are locked in a fight with anti-Communists.

Foodstuffs were getting low as Italian police blocked all seven roads into the world's smallest republic.

What food reached the 38-square-mile country and its 14,000 people was smuggled in by persons skirting the road blocks and sneaking across the fields at night.

San Marino's Communist government still had 70 armed militiamen inside the old stone government house, but was feeling shaky. Gino Giacomini, 72-year-old foreign minister, told a new conference he had messaged Italian Premier Adone Zoli proposing that an Italian parliamentary commission visit the country. He promised the Red regime would step down if such a commission decided it should.

An anti-Communist committee of four has set itself up as a government in an abandoned factory, only yards from the frontier.

San Marino, entirely surrounded by Italy, has had a Communist government since World War II. Recently the Communists lost the majority in Parliament as a result of defections. The anti-Communists claim the Red government has been illegal since midnight Sept. 30 when the terms of the ministers expired.

U.S. Standing Ready To Help British Again

London Government's Reserve Falls Below So-Called Danger Spot

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—The run on the British pound by speculators has pulled her reserve of gold and dollars below the theoretical danger point of two billion dollars. But Uncle Sam stands ready to help as in the past when Britain had one of her recurring financial crises.

This time Britain will draw on a 500 million dollar credit given her by the United States Export-Import Bank. If the pound needs further bolstering there is also a 750 million dollar credit approved by the international monetary fund.

And Britain herself has taken a drastic move to stop the run by raising the bank rate to 7 per cent. This is the rate that the Bank of England charges for funds it supplies to commercial banks and the rate tends to set the scale of interest in general.

The rate was raised from 5 per cent to fight one of the underlying causes of the run on the pound — inflation. In this country the similar rate — the discount rate of the federal reserve banks — has been raised to 3.5 per cent. Here, too, tightening of money and credit was aimed at the same foe — inflation.

The fight to save the British pound, of which hiking the bank rate was the most drastic step, may be felt by some American businesses. The First National City Bank of New York notes in its October bank letter that "a check to spending abroad may limit American exports to some extent and may exert a moderate depressing influence on some world commodities."

The average price of 22 basic commodities calculated by the Bureau of Labor Statistics has fallen nine per cent since last December. The New York bank sees this as "reminding people that deflation can take place as well as inflation."

Britain and Germany have announced firmly that they plan to keep the present valuation on the pound and mark, respectively. American bankers accept these intentions as honest.

But some add that only time will tell whether they can. The fight against inflation is a hard one in England. The strength of the German mark as compared to other West European currencies may call for negotiations in the future.

Chillicothe To Get New Air Radar Unit

WASHINGTON (AP)—Four new radar units have been purchased by the Civil Aeronautics Administration, bringing to 27 the number of sets around the country to chart air traffic.

The sets will be installed at Chillicothe, Ohio; Salem, Ore.; Montgomery, Ala.; and Minneapolis. Information from the sets will be sent to air route traffic controllers to help traffic controllers keep track of planes.

Atlanta

The Atlanta WSCS met at the home of Mrs. Charles W. Mills on Friday evening, for their September meeting. Mrs. George Neal presided over the business meeting, opening with "The Lord's Prayer" given in unison. The secretary, Mrs. Tom Farmer, gave the roll call and minutes of the previous meeting. A "thank you" note was read from Mrs. Robert Bartel for flowers received during her illness. Two cards were signed by the members to send to Mrs. Martha Hughes and Mrs. Merle Scott who were unable to attend the meeting.

The promotion secretary, Mrs. John Williams, urged that reports be in the mail by Oct. 1. A vote was given to send cash donations to the Pearl St. Community House at Youngstown and to the Institute Methodist, Santa Amare, Brazil, as the secretary of supplies, Mrs. Charles W. Mills, suggested.

Mrs. Hoyt Martin, secretary of Spiritual Life, read literature regarding the week of Prayer and Self Denial to be held in October. The society decided members would regard this in their homes with silent prayer. Under new business, Mrs. Glenn Robinson gave an account of the topics of the Bible Study Class, and the plans of same are to be decided on at the October meeting.

Since the four sale dinners, at the Union Sales Barn at Washington C. H., in September were a success, it was decided for the society to serve the meals for the four Wednesdays in March '58.

After the Benediction, the group drew mystery sisters for the coming year. An interesting program, "Missions Cinerama," was presented by Mrs. Tom Farmer and Mrs. Harry Morris assisted by Mesdames George Neal, Warren Hobbie, with the readings, Mrs. Mills and her committee served a dessert course to 20 members, with Debbie Morris, Lynn and Leslie Williams as guests.

Mrs. Ethel Gerhardt and family and Miss Wynonia Bennett accompanied Mrs. John Roberts to Columbus, Sunday, to the airport, where she left enroute to Franklin, Germany, where they will reside for the next few years.

Mr. and Mrs. Merle Scott had as their Sunday afternoon and evening guests Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fredrick, and Mr. and Mrs. Don DeShambo and daughter Debbie and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Chilcote of Columbus.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Speakman and Mr. and Mrs. Don Bethel and sons Larry and Gary of Chillicothe, pleasantly surprised the former's daughter, Miss June Speakman of Fairborn, on her recent birthday on Sunday. Miss Speakman is a teacher of the 4th Grade at Fairborn and resides in her house trailer in the trailer court.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Long and sons Darrell and Charles entertained at their home on Sunday, the Morgan Reunion.

Mrs. Warren Hobbie, Mrs. Jake Justice and Mrs. Earl Armentrout attended the county meeting of the Home Demonstration Groups, on Friday afternoon at the Extension Office at Circleville.

Bobby Armentrout was a Monday guest of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Armentrout.

"Mary Hawthorth's Mail"

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: I am a woman 65 years old, almost; and lately I feel so disorganized. May be I've always been that way, but now it seems I can hardly stand it.

Little things I say or don't say; or do, or don't do, bother me immensely. I lie awake nights thinking of them, and arise worn out.

I have worked in an office for years—nearly all my married life, and for 10 years before. We have two married daughters and grandchildren, whom we see only occasionally as they live hundreds of miles away.

I have been a church member all my life and my faith in God is strong. He has been good to us in many ways. My husband was drinking heavily some years ago, but he stopped suddenly and there has been no problem since.

Maybe I have a guilt complex, or an inferiority complex; or maybe I am on the wrong track in thinking so. A strong-minded relative who lives nearby has been a fly in the ointment all my life—telling me where I err; although she has made as many mistakes.

Well, the gist of it is that I wish I could feel surer of myself; that what I do is right and that I am doing my best, trying to lead as good a life as I know how. Otherwise I feel that my mind will slip; I feel so confused.

Perhaps I should stop office work and concentrate on my home. I think we might manage without my earnings, at least after January. There is much more

If She Had Known, Story Different?

KANSAS CITY, Kan. (AP)—Mrs. Norman Martin, 32, found a small snake in the basement of her suburban home Thursday and was bitten on a finger while trying to put it in a bottle.

She completed the capture and, with the 14-inch snake in a jar, asked a neighbor if it was poisonous.

"It's a rattlesnake!" Mrs. Harold C. Hedges exclaimed.

Mrs. Hedges gave first aid with a snake-bite kit, then took Mrs. Martin to a hospital. She was released after treatment.

I could write, but it may not be pertinent.

A. M.

DEAR A.M.: It occurs to me that Adelle Davis' book "Let's eat Right to Keep Fit" (Harcourt, Brace) may be a light bearer as regards the nature and origin of your confusion.

On page 191, Mrs. Davis discusses the body's requirements of iron to maintain good health. Among other things she says: "... Long use of iron deficient diets causes anemia to be prevalent in women, at and after the menopause. Besides causing needless fatigue, mental confusion and depression, anemia can bring about such forgetfulness that these women often become convinced they are losing their minds."

Mrs. Davis takes issue with the prevalent notion that a normal blood count in women shows 4 1/2 million red cells, and 80 to 100 percent hemoglobin—in comparison to 5 1/2 million cells in men, and 100 percent hemoglobin for them.

Rather, her research and experience show that when growing girls and women of reproductive age are given a diet adequate in iron and other nutrients, their "average" blood count increases to 5 1/2 million and 100 percent hemoglobin is maintained — same as in men.

Thus she argues that the accepted standard blood count for women is actually below normal. It may be "average" but it isn't optimum—that is, the best or most favorable degree, quality, number, etc.

Mrs. Davis points to the National Research Council's recommendation of 12 milligrams of iron daily, for adults; and 15 milligrams for adolescents and pregnant women. But she remarks that "any diet adequate in protein and the B vitamins, supplied by natural sources, will be more than adequate in iron."

However, if anemia does persist after a sound nutrition program is observed, a doctor certainly should be consulted, she says. Then she goes on to the subject of iodine—"too little of which can be even worse than a lack of iron," she believes.

For advice: read the book; make notes of suggestions that bear on your symptoms; and go into action, with the consultative help of a first-rate doctor or gerontologist. A gerontologist is a medical specialist who knows the effects of diet on the aging constitution.

O'Neill Names 10 Members To New Ohio A-Energy Panel

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Gov. C. Land law firm of Squire, Sanders & Dempsey.

William O'Neill has appointed 10 members to the new Atomic Energy Advisory Board to serve with William H. Eells, recently named state co-ordinator of atomic development activities.

The governor's announcement said board members were selected for "their high professional standing in their respective fields."

They are:

Dr. H. R. Nelson of the Battelle Atomic Energy Center, Columbus, a leading U.S. atomic physicist and member of the Advisory Committee on Isotope Distribution for the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission (AEC).

Erwin Shrader, professor of physics at Case Institute of Technology, Cleveland, now on leave for work with the research division of AEC.

Dr. Hymer Friedell, director of the department of radiology at Lakeside Hospital, Western Reserve University, Cleveland.

Dr. Charles A. Doan, dean of Ohio State University College of Medicine.

Dr. Roy Shoults, general manager of the General Electric Air Nuclear Propulsion Laboratory in Evendale, Cincinnati suburb.

Motorists Hear Matrons Whistle

MCALLEN, Tex. (AP)—Passing motorists are being whistled at by pretty young matrons on McAllen street corners.

They're members of the David Crockett School "mothers patrol," and they're using the whistles like traffic patrolmen. The patrol was formed to see pupils across two busy intersections near the school.

Dr. R. A. Lindquist said the mothers will continue to whistle and take turns guiding children across the street morning and afternoon until the city can install traffic signals, promised in about six weeks.

$250 Bounty Eyed For 'Litterbugs'

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The city may declare open season on litterbugs.

City attorney Dion Holm has delivered a legal opinion that the city fathers may offer a $250 bounty on the pest and post signs offering that reward for information leading to arrest and conviction.

Holm not only said such signs would be legal; he drafted a brief ordinance offering the $250 reward.

It appears they'll have to be brought in alive, however. Nothing was said about pelts.

Special Tags Cause Troubles

Tennessee is getting a lesson in how special favors can lead to unlooked-for consequences. It involves the issuance of special auto license tags.

Through various legislative enactments over a period of years, 11,000 distinctive tags have been issued to 20 selected groups. They include legislators, honorary colonels, amateur radio operators, National Guardsmen, newsmen covering the state capitol and others.

The state's safety commissioner says the multiplicity of tags is so confusing that traffic enforcement officers are under a handicap. It is extremely difficult to identify all of the state's 60 different kinds of license plates.

"I have encountered some so-called high placed holders of special tags," he says, "who seem to expect a bountiful, continuous flow of special favors, including magical places to park, a blinking of the police eye at their speeding or reckless driving, and such other non-democratic favors as driving them home when they are drunk."

Recipients of special favors from politicians are always busily engaged in taking full advantage of them—when they are not busy throwing their weight around.

He Makes Movie for $25,000

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—Hollywood may be dismayed to learn that an ex-soda jerk here has made a full length movie for only $25,000.

The film, "A Run Across the River," is the culmination of a four-year dream and a long uphill fight for its 31-year-old producer, Everett Chambers, who has a crew cut and looks like an Ivy League college instructor. A spy chase melodrama, filmed in semi-documentary style and featuring Greenwich Village backgrounds, it is now being shown to exhibitors.

"I don't expect it to rival 'Gone With the Wind,'" said Chambers cheerfully. "But I think it's a pretty fair 'B' grade picture—at least as good as 'I Was a Teen-Age Werewolf.'"

Chambers, a native of Los Angeles, came here in 1949 and got a $52 a week job dishing up sandwiches in a downtown ice cream parlor. He also met and married there a hostess named Joan.

After a few acting jobs, Chambers worked his way up to a post as one of TV's top casting directors. But he saw the handwriting on the wall when live TV shows began to be replaced by film productions.

Chambers decided he had to change with the times.

Chambers persuaded a friend, Lee Gillen, 29, to write a movie script (his first one) for the promise of a share of the profits, if any. He got a dozen actors to take roles on the same basis. The same with the cameraman.

But he still had to have some cash. Yet who would put up any real money for such a shoestring venture. The answer was easy. Nobody. Chambers was about to abandon the project when his wife suggested:

"Why don't we call up everybody we know, and ask them to put in $200 each? That will appeal to everybody, and nobody can get hurt bad."

"We got on the phone at once," said Chambers, "and in two weeks raised $6,000. Then a friend in the garment industry chipped in $7,500 and we were off."

Among Chambers' backers are his mother, his doctor, an usher, a Chinese bartender, a policeman's widow, a teacher, a secretary, and a delicatessen counter-

erman. No salaries have been paid yet to actors, author, cameraman or technicians. Scenery and backgrounds were borrowed. Greenwich Village friends loaned their apartments for interior shots.

The city of New York loaned him a subway train and a fire boat. It also sent two detectives who questioned him for five hours because he hadn't obtained a permit to stage a spectacular rooftop gunfight.

"We were so short-staffed that I had to do the makeup and hair-dressing myself," said Chambers. "I even had to sew a bra into the negligee of one actress, which is a pretty unusual chore for a producer."

He figures that if he can sell the picture for $100,000 all his investors will get their money back and all salaries will be paid. That will leave him nothing for himself.

"But the experience will have been worth it," he said. "I think I've proved that even Hollywood can turn out acceptable movies for no more than $100,000 in five weeks—if they are planned well."

Your Heart Is Real Tough

By Herman N. Bundesen, M.D.

Your heart seems to do a little flip flop and you exclaim: "I think it skipped a beat!"

Or maybe you have a pain over your heart and you say to yourself bravely: "Well, this is it, a heart attack."

I suppose it's natural for a person to worry about something as important as his heart, but, in the vast majority of cases, neither of these incidents is anything to be very concerned about.

Rarely is pain in the left chest caused by heart disease. Usually the cause is too much air and muscular spasm in the digestive tract. Actually heart pain is generally felt in the center of the chest and is a pressure or tightness.

As for your heart skipping a beat, well, so what? Most likely this is what we call a premature heart beat or a beat that comes between two regular beats. Alarming as it may sound, I'd say that almost all normal hearts have a premature beat occasionally, although the heart's owner may not be aware of it.

Very seldom do such beats mean you have heart disease. While they can be caused by any number of things and do mean more heart irritability, they will never bring on heart disease no matter how frequent they become.

And in some cases they are both frequent and prolonged. Maybe there will be only one or two in a month. On the other hand, there may be several premature beats a minute. Perhaps the situation will last for years.

We have traced the source of these "extra beats" to such things as fatigue, influenza, sinus infections, even carbuncles.

Another common cause is an abcessed tooth.

The best thing to do when you notice a premature beat is to see your doctor. You'll want professional advice even if the only thing he does is to tell you that it's nothing to worry about. And this probably is the best advice in most cases.

Still, if the premature beats occur often enough to get you really worried, we have several drugs

The World Today

By James Marlow

By ED CREAUGH
For James Marlow
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower finally has spelled out a bill of particulars against Arkansas Gov. Orval E. Faubus.

He tried, as is his custom, to avoid personalities. He said it's not his practice to interpret people's motives.

But he did say, under questioning at his news conference Thursday, that he believes Faubus "is mistaken in what he is doing, and is doing a disservice to the city of Little Rock and to his state."

It is no surprise that the President feels this way about Faubus. But this was the first time he had spelled it out and explained why he felt that way.

And so it is now possible to give each man's viewpoint, in his own words, on the school integration deadlock at Little Rock:

1. Eisenhower says Faubus' calling out the National Guard to keep nine Negro children from attending a white school was "definite, direct defiance" of a federal court order. Faubus says trouble would have broken out (as it later did) if he hadn't mustered the Guard. He says maintaining law and order was his primary responsibility.

2. Eisenhower says he thought "at the very least," after his Sept. 14 talk with Faubus at Newport, R.I., the governor's orders to the Guard would be "modified." But Faubus made no specific promise in the statement he issued after that meeting. He said only that he expected to obey court rulings on integration but (A) he hoped the federal government would be "patient and understanding," and (B) in the meantime it was "essential" to maintain law and order.

3. Eisenhower says he and the four Southern governors who tried this week to mediate the dispute "had an understanding" with Faubus which would have led to withdrawal of federal troops. The President says, however, Faubus' assurances did not turn out to be "satisfactory and unequivocal."

available to remedy the situation without any trouble or pain to you. Just remember this: your heart is a tough old organ. It can take a lot more than you might think.

Question and Answer

J. C.: How may books be disinfected after having been handled by a person with a contagious disease?

Answer: Very little attention is paid to books as a possible means of spreading disease. Usually, it is best to air out, for at least 12 hours, everything in a room in which there has been a case of contagious disease. All articles should be exposed to the sunlight as much as possible.

However, if the infection is due to smallpox, the books and other articles should be destroyed.

Faubus says they were exactly that, and he says he won't go one step farther.

In plain language, then, the President says the governor has been weaseling out of agreements while the governor says, in his own phrase, "I have given until it hurts."

One of the Southern governors who tried to mediate the dispute, Luther Hodges of North Carolina, says he hopes there is nothing but a misunderstanding between Eisenhower and Faubus—something which can quickly be cleared up.

Eisenhower's firm manner as well as his words Thursday made it plain, however, that the dispute involves much more than the meaning of words—that it entails such things as good faith and an honest intention to obey the law.

Faubus is going to have to convince the President he has both of these qualities before Eisenhower will withdraw the troops. Either that or—as the President also suggested—the Little Rock authorities will have to say: "There will be no difficulty that we can't control in the carrying out of this (federal) court's orders."

In other words, some way may be found to bypass Faubus if the governor maintains his present stand.

What about another Eisenhower-Faubus meeting? The President didn't rule it out, but he showed about as much enthusiasm as he has shown for meeting with the leaders of Soviet Russia. Which is to say: yes, if I think any good can come out of it—but don't expect me to enjoy it.

Girl Bandit Faces Prison Sentence

CLEVELAND (AP)—Convicted by a jury late Thursday, Patsy Delligatta, 24, faces a 1-7 year sentence on a charge of receiving $100 of the loot taken from the St. Clair Savings & Loan Co. in a holdup last April.

The holdup was recorded on motion picture film by a concealed camera which an employee triggered during the robbery. The pictures led to arrest of Steve R. Thomas, 24; Miss Wanda Diczynski, 18, and Miss Rose O'Donnell, 18. The girls said Delligatta lent them his automobile knowing of the stickup plan.

Arkansas Invasion Crucial

By George Sokolsky

Events are numerous and attract widespread attention even if the particular event amounts to nothing more than a ball-team shifting its habitat or a movie-star divorcing her sixth husband. The forces that move men and women in each historic era are not always visible or definable but many of them are so powerful that they make for war or revolution or vast changes in culture.

The quest for human dignity is eternal and appears among all human beings. It is incorporated in the three great Semitic religions, Judaism, Christianity and Islam. Associated with the concept of human dignity is the ideal, incorporated in the American Declaration of Independence, of equal rights which has been translated as meaning equal rights under the law but not egalite as conceived in the French Revolution.

The Little Rock event brings this particular question again to the fore in American affairs. For what Little Rock asks is whether a Negro can be equated as equal under the law and with identical rights and privileges as a white person in the State of Arkansas. The United States Constitution makes it so by the 14th and 15th Amendments; the Supreme Court has made it so by the School Integration Decision. But these are political means; will recognition be achieved by social means?

Sen. Herman Talmadge of Georgia set forth a Southern reaction to this question in remarks before the United States Senate dealing with the question of civil rights. The main burden of his theme is that this measure moves away from each individual human being standing alone and in personal dignity, equal to all other individuals, in the eyes of the law and in the bosom of God, and substituting for the individual, a group, a minority group to which is given special privileges and special protections.

Sen. Talmadge says: "When Congress undertakes to enact laws giving special rights to minorities which are denied to the majority, then constitutional safeguards of all the people become meaningless."

"When Congress jeopardizes individual rights and transfers or creates rights in a special group or class, it is treading on dangerous ground."

"The rights of every American citizen—whatever his color, extraction or national origin—are threatened by this bill."

"That is true whether he be a Nisei farmer on the West Coast, a colored steelworker in Toledo, a Catholic fisherman in New England, a Mexican rancher in Texas or a Jewish rabbi in Brooklyn."

The relationship of state to federal government is the essence of this problem. During the Roosevelt administration the federal government grew in power first because of the Depression and then because of the war. It taxed the people of each state but returned to the state government a share of the taxes for special purposes, thus developing a measure of control over agencies and activities of government heretofore regarded as the special province of states.

For many years, this process was accepted as correct, although it threw into each state a murrain of federal officials whose salaries and upkeep increased the burden of taxes for the whole American people. It was hoped that when Eisenhower became president, there would be some relief from this process of costly centralization. There has been no relief.

The events in Arkansas then raise two issues: one, the Negro question which some thought had been solved 92 years ago by the Civil War, the other, the fundamental constitutional question of the relationship of the federal government to the states. By sending federal troops into Little Rock, President Eisenhower has committed an act, the constitutionality of which will be questioned even in states where there is agreement with him on his views concerning Negro integration.

Under which provision of the Constitution were these troops sent into Arkansas? Is the United States at war with the State of Arkansas? Had Congress declared such a war? Is Arkansas in a state of rebellion? These are questions which will not be ignored. They transcend the Little Rock high school and Gov. Orval Faubus. They even transcend Attorney General Herbert Brownell and President Eisenhower.

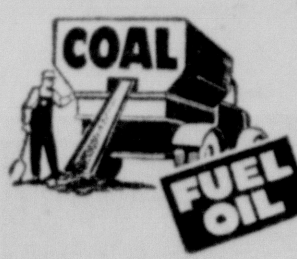

In a word, these are questions upon which hang the future political and social structure of this country. To summarize the issue, perhaps to oversimplify it, it is: shall we become a nationalized, centralized state or remain a federal union as the Constitution provides?

Paul Writes to the Corinthians

HE BEGS THEM TO BE OF ONE MIND; NOT DIVIDED

Scripture—I Corinthians 1-4.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL

AFTER our series of lessons on interesting and inspiring personalities in the Old Testament, we turn now to the New Testament and St. Paul's efforts to maintain peace among the members of the newly formed churches, and to advise them to be of one mind and spirit, not divided.

The editor of our Sunday school notes, Dr. Wilbur M. Smith, suggests that the younger classes could be introduced to this rather difficult lesson (for the young) by calling to their attention the many parts which go into the making of a modern automobile.

If, when driving this complicated machine there is heard a peculiar noise, a squeak, say, a pounding or clicking, the driver knows that something is wrong and goes at once to have it repaired. If the machinery is not adjusted so that the car runs smoothly, the trip may be ruined or an accident occur.

The children will also be reminded that if all in the class

the Lord Jesus Christ.

"Now I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment."

"For it hath been declared unto me of you, my brethren, by them which are of the house of Chloe, that there are contentions among you." Chloe must have been someone who carried weight with the Corinthians, a woman either of Corinth or Ephesus, from which latter city Paul was writing.

The Greeks were much given to argumentation, and after Paul had left Corinth, another, a brilliant man named Apollos, a co-worker of Paul's, preached to them, and his eloquence was such that many were more impressed by his discourses than by Paul's simpler sermons.

Paul was the founder of the church in Corinth, and Paul speaks of this by saying: "Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos,"

MEMORY VERSE

"I determined not to know any thing among you, save Jesus Christ, and Him crucified."—I Corinthians 2:2.

are not listening to the teacher, answering the questions asked them, but are restless and disorderly, perhaps quarrelsome, the effect of the lesson will be lost and the whole class be disturbed.

So it is in our churches in which dissensions and divided opinions arise, causing arguments and ill feelings. Paul had been informed that there was such discord in the church in Corinth, which he had founded. Corinth was a famous seaport, and people from every part of the great Roman empire came together there. Paul probably came there in the autumn of A.D. 50, and stayed 18 months. He begins his Epistle thus:

"Paul, called to be an apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God, and Sosthenes our brother." We do not know Sosthenes, but he must have been a fellow laborer with the Apostle in Corinth.

"Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from Jesus Christ our Lord."

but ministers by whom ye believed, even as the Lord gave to every man? I have planted, Apollos watered; but God gave the increase."

These two men were both workers for God and Christ. As Paul writes: "For we are laborers together with God; ye are God's husbandry." Paul says further that he founded, but "let every man take heed how he buildeth thereon."

There are many fine men today doing God's work in the ministry. Some may possess more eloquent tongues than others, but all are possessed of the Spirit of God and of Christ. "For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ."

Paul speaks about shortly visiting at Corinth, almost seems to apologize for his chiding, for he writes: "I write not these things to shame you but as my beloved sons I warn you."

Health Chiefs Check Paint On American, Japanese Toys

RALEIGH, N. C. — Several state agencies continued to make tests of Japanese and American toys today as laboratory reports showed considerable amounts of poisonous lead paint on the Japanese toys.

Dr. John Hamilton, assistant state health officer, said he had tested 10 Japanese toys and discovered percentages of lead in the paint varying from 1 to 15.

Dr. J. W. R. Norton, state health officer, said that three-tenths of 1 percent is generally considered the maximum amount that is safe. But he added more important than the percentage in the paint is the amount of dosage the child receives from putting the toy in his mouth.

Walter F. Anderson, director of the State Bureau of Investigation, asserted that his department also planned to run some tests in the next couple of days. One toy was tested by the Agriculture Department. No results have been made available on the American toys as yet, but Dr. Norton said that he understood American manufacturers had agreed several years ago to use paint without any lead in it. Dr. Norton said that he, Dr. Hamilton and Anderson were keeping in touch with each other daily on the progress of the tests. Dr. Norton indicated that any action that might be taken would not come until after all the "facts were known."

Dr. Hamilton said most of the toys in North Carolina are in the hands of wholesalers. Only a few were sold across the counter, he added. There have been no reports of any children stricken.

Conference Set At Mt. Sterling

A Derby Methodist WCTU meeting is planned for 2 p. m. Tuesday in the home of Mrs. Mary Wardell, with Mrs. John Brown as leader. Cheerio Class will meet at 7 p. m. Wednesday at the home of Miss Maude Blaine. Stated for Thursday are a children's choir practice at 4 p. m. and senior choir practice at 7 p. m.

31-Year-Old Texas Pledge To Be Kept

DALLAS — A senior at the old Central High School in Fort Worth made a promise to a fellow senior 31 years ago.

One predicted: "Someday I'm going to be the governor of Texas."

Asked the first boy: "When you get to be governor, will you come and speak to my congregation?"

"Sure I will," replied the second. That promise will be fulfilled Sunday morning when Gov. Price Daniel speaks to Dr. J. A. Lovell's congregation at the First Covenant Church in Dallas.

Beta Sigma Phi Sorority Holds Model Chapter Meet

The model meeting of the Kappa Alpha Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority was held for prospective pledges at the October business and cultural meeting on Thursday evening in the sorority rooms.

After the meeting was called to order by Mrs. Olen Black, president, a short welcome was extended to all guests. A brief history of the activities of the local chapter was given by Mrs. George Hamrick, program chairman. Some of the highlights of the past cultural meetings, social activities, ways and means projects, and service contributions to the community were reviewed.

Mrs. Leroy Slusser, vice president and membership chairman, invited the members and guests to the Preferential Tea to be held Sunday, October 13 at Wardell's Party Home.

Plans are being made by Mrs.

Delegates Home From Convention

Mrs. Richard Funk and Mrs. William Cook represented the Child Study Club of Circleville at the 37th Annual Child Conservation League Convention which was held at the Sheraton-Gibson Hotel in Cincinnati.

Everett Lindsey, personnel manager, Gulf Refining Co. spoke on "Motivation" and demonstrated by motivating a minstrel show from persons in the audience.

One of the special guests at the banquet held on the roof garden of the Sheraton-Gibson was Mrs. Ivy Baker Priest, U. S. treasurer. Mrs. Priest spoke the following afternoon of the subject, "Treasures Money Can't Buy".

"Mrs. John Buckeye" was selected from delegates attending the convention. She was Mrs. John Norman, a teacher, and widow with six children who was taking college work in her spare time.

Mrs. Cook reported that one interesting feature of the program was "Mother Goose Town Hall" by Mary Kuehne who had on display Mother Goose Characters and gave the origin and history of many well known rhymes.

Dick Welch's Orchestra Playing

Committees for Circleville Junior Woman's Club Harvest Ball have been named by the General Chairman, Mrs. Harry Turner. Members of the decorating committee will be Mrs. Theodore Wolfe, Mrs. Ray Sapp and Mrs. Paul Jackson.

This, too, is one of many occasions during the club year when husbands of members help out, in addition to serving as baby sitters several husbands are always on hand when it comes time to decorate for the dance for such tasks as "hanging" the full moon which always "shines" on the dancers, carrying corn fodder and pumpkins up the stairs and stringing electric lights.

To further make the dance a Mr. and Mrs. project, husbands of members help out at the refreshment stand during the dance. The committee in charge of the refreshment stand will be Mrs. Joe Drake, Mrs. Richard Penn, and Mrs. J. A. Cunningham. Mrs. Sterling Poling is in charge of advertising and Mrs. Larry Curl handled the ticket sale.

Recognized Social Agency Said Best for Adoption Aid

By JANE EADS

WASHINGTON (AP)—If you want to adopt a child the best thing to do is to go to a recognized social agency in your community, or to your state Department of Welfare.

"In so doing," says the Children's Bureau, "your interests as well as those of the child and his mother will be best protected. Creating a family by bringing children without homes together with couples without children who want to adopt them isn't a matter of slapdash doing."

The Children's Bureau, "taking a fresh look at the adoption picture today" in studying the role of the agency and social worker, says it is finding encouraging developments which should offset much of the criticism leveled at placement practices in the past.

"We will never have a pattern for finding the right parents or right child, but we are learning how to facilitate getting together the individuals who will form this family," said one official.

"More public agencies are developing adoption programs than ever before," says Miss Clare Golden, new Children's Bureau consultant on foster family care and adoptions. "This is mainly because of the need to plan for more children and a recognition of the fact that more can be placed for adoption than were thought unadoptable at one time."

The bureau, she said, is trying to stimulate interest in medical, legal, nursing, clergy, and other professional groups to work cooperatively with different community social agencies, one of whose major concerns is adoption. The result is that many committees are being set up in various areas to work out the problems together.

Other results listed by the Children's Bureau include:

1. A better appreciation of the importance of the doctor's contribution in considering a child for adoption. More specialists are drawn into cases where there are unusual problems.

2. In many states, a reappraisal of adoption laws. Generally, the focus is to consider advisability of requiring all adoptive placements to be made through recognized agencies; to determine legislative changes to control out-of-state placements; to determine the extent to which legislation should control the right of the mother to place her child.

3. Recruitment of adoptive homes for minority groups. "Adopt a child" in New York is finding homes for Negro and Puerto Rican children; in San Francisco, "MARCH" is recruiting homes for Negro, Mexican, and Oriental children.

Stimulated Braves Now Confident of Defeating Yankees

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Back home with a split in the two games played at Yankee Stadium, the suddenly stimulated Milwaukee Braves, from Manager Fred Haney down, were confident today they would beat the New York Yankees in the World Series.

The odds-makers still made the American League champions a 6-5 favorite.

Elated by his team's fine all-round performance Thursday that backed up Lew Burdette's brilliant pitching with a 4-2 triumph, Haney plans to throw Bob Buhl, the last of his Big Three, at the Yankees Saturday in the first of three consecutive games at County Stadium.

The 18-game winner will be opposed by Pol Turley New York's hardest throwing pitcher.

Thursday's game drew 65,202 fans was a battle all the way until Hank Bauer rapped into a game-ending force play to leave the tying runs on the basepaths.

"These fellows showed our guys they mean business," declared Casey Stengel, the all-knowing New York manager. "This was a big game for them. They're going to be tougher to beat from now on. Mind you, I'm not saying we won't do it but it's not going to be easy. Not from the looks of the way they battled us today."

The usually mild-mannered Haney hurled a veiled challenge at Casey's crew.

"We know we will win now," he said. "We're over the hump. We stood up to those guys in their own back yard and held them even. Now they've got to play us three games in our park. I think pitching will be the key to this series and I know we've got the pitching."

In an effort to make use of as much left-handed batting strength

Pickaway Unit Risks Record On Saturday

The Pickaway Pirates six-man football squad will be seeking its third win in a row at the County Fairgrounds when they meet the Indians of Stoutsville Saturday.

To date the Pirates have registered victories over Darby and Amanda to nail down first place in the county grid league.

They will face a rugged Stoutsville team which has won its only loop encounter of the season, a hard-fought decision over Walnut.

The Indians didn't play last week since their game with Jackson was canceled because Jackson had only eight players available for the contest. However, Jackson is set for competition tomorrow night.

The other two games promising plenty of action for the evening pits Jackson against Walnut and Darby vs Amanda. The Pickaway-Stoutsville game is set for 6:30 p. m., Jackson vs Walnut at 7:45 p. m. and Darby vs Amanda at 9 p. m.

A large crowd is expected to witness the three contests. League officials have set up a new family plan admission rate in an effort to get plenty of fans out for the always-thrilling games.

2-Horse Pileup Mars Lebanon Raceway Test

LEBANON (AP) — The Souvenir and Bea Colby divided the honors here Thursday night in the two-heat Class C trot, feature event on the harness race program at Lebanon Raceway.

The second heat was marred by a collision involving Shangri La Rose and Ames Abbey. Neither driver, B. Morgan or L. Carter, was hurt but Shangri La Rose was reported injured seriously.

MANTLE MISSES AARON'S TRIPLE — Limping Mickey Mantle, who seemingly misjudged the hit, races back toward the 461-foot mark in Yankee stadium's center field, but the ball eludes him and Milwaukee's Hank Aaron roars into third for a triple in the second inning of the second World Series game. Milwaukee evened the Series at one game each by copping the second, 4-2.

Egan Drives To Big Win on 78th Birthday

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) — The 1957 fight for 3-year-old trotting honors was wide open today in the wake of Cassin-Hanover's "sentimental journey" to victory in the $50,460 Kentucky Futurity.

Cassin, winner only once before in 17 starts, responded to the urging of Fred Egan in the final eighth of the last dash of a rare four-heat race Thursday to make Egan's 78th birthday perfect.

The crowd of about 5,000 gave Cassin and her driver a standing ovation. And as Egan drove the filly owned by Mrs. Charlotte N. Sheppard, Hanover, Pa., into the winner's circle, the crowd rose and sang "Happy Birthday."

Storm Cloud, winner of the first heat, was second in the three-horse raceoff. Double Scotch, part of the S. A. Camp four-horse entry and winner of the second heat, was third.

Cassin Hanover won the third heat in 2:02.1 and had enough left to take the final dash in a slow 2:09.2.

Cassin earned $14,431.56, nearly $5,000 more than she had won all season.

Hoot Song, winner of the Yorkers Futurity and second in the Hambletonian, which with the classic here make up trotting's triple crown, finished fourth, 10th and second in the dashes, breaking stride twice.

Hickory Smoke, the Hambletonian winner, wasn't eligible. Torpid, winner of the Delaware, Ohio, Little Brown Jug, lost a mile dash at the Lexington Tots. It is the fourth time in 40 starts he has been beaten.

Torpid won the first heat in 2 minutes flat, but finished third later when Royal Melody came on to win in 2:00.3; Meadow Rhythm took second.

Top Collegiate Teams To Face Little Trouble

Comparative Scores
Show Leaders To Be
Winners Saturday

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

If there is a brewer for the nation's top 10 college football teams tomorrow, it doesn't show comparative scores.

In going undefeated in 14 games, the teams are in the first 10 in this week's Associated Press poll have added up a total of 460 points while holding their opponents to 72.

By contrast their opponents have won only 5, lost 10 and tied 3. In the 18 games, they scored 189 points while yielding 256.

Not one from top-ranked Oklahoma on down to 10th-rated Michigan has been really tested. It will be an upset if any are beaten tomorrow.

Potent Oklahoma, idle last week after blanking Pitt 26-0, goes after its 42nd successive victory, against Iowa State (1-0-1). Oklahoma has not been beaten by a Big Eight conference team since Coach Bud Wilkinson took over 10 years ago.

Second-ranked Michigan State, 1-0 after blasting Indiana 54-0 in the Spartans' opener, meets winless California (0-2) in the TV Game of the Week.

The remainder of the top 10 line up like this:

Minnesota, 46-7 conqueror of Washington, meets Purdue, 0-1 after losing 12-0 to Notre Dame. Duke, 2-0 with a 26-14 conquest of South Carolina and 40-0 victory over Virginia, takes on disappointing Maryland (0-2).

The Texas Aggies, with a 21-13 victory over Maryland and a 21-0 blanking of Texas Tech, meet Missouri, 0-1 with a 7-7 tie with

Mrs. Chelikowsky Low Net Golfer

Ladies Day at the Pickaway Country Club yesterday saw 13 women golfers participating in competition.

Low net was recorded by Frances Chelikowsky. Patsy Blake was second and Betty Young third. Low putt honors for the day went to Ruth Athey.

Bobby Shantz Doubts He'll Get New Chance

NEW YORK (AP) — Little Bobby Shantz, belted out by the Milwaukee Braves in a winning, two-run fourth inning of Thursday's second World Series game, spoke softly afterward of having lost a chance for a second start for the New York Yankees.

"I just couldn't put my curve where I wanted it," he said. "I don't think I'll get another chance against them."

Vanderbilt and 35-13 victory over Arizona.

Navy, considered by many experts to be the best in the East after thrashing Boston College 46-6 and William & Mary 33-6, clashes with North Carolina (1-1). Auburn, surprise 7-0 conqueror of Tennessee in its lone effort, should have no trouble against Chattanooga (1-0-1).

Iowa's Hawkeyes, who showed a great potential in downing Utah State 70-14, are at home to Washington State (1-1). Oregon State, with 20-0 victory over Southern California and 34-6 over Kansas, also steps out of its league for a clash with Northwestern (0-1).

Michigan, figured to be one of the title threats in the Big 10, entertains Georgia (0-2) after turning back Southern California 16-6 in its only other start.

Jefferson Union Grid Team Felled by Illness

STUEBENVILLE (AP) — Tonight's Jefferson Union - Toronto High School football game has been canceled because 33 members of the Jefferson football squad are reported ill with a respiratory ailment.

CHS, Broncos Play Tonight

Tigers Invade Indian Territory

Circleville's Tigers and Ashville's Broncos invade foreign territory seeking football wins tonight.

The Tigers travel to Hillsboro for a South Central Ohio League test with the Indians and Ashville journeys to Madison South in quest of its second win of the season.

Circleville hopes to get in the winning column at the expense of Hillsboro. The Tigers have lost all three games to date and Hillsboro has won one of three.

Asa Elser, Bob Barnhart and Terry Barthelmas and company are expected to go all out in stopping Hillsboro's attack which is centered around the running of fullback Gilbert Kittrell and halfbacks Jasper Oppy. Meanwhile backs Mike Hosler, Walt Arledge, Dick Bircher and Larry Hannas will attempt to fashion a winning attack of their own.

Ashville will rely on the running of left half Dick Hoover and the passing of quarterback Bill Boyer. The Bronco defensive line will be anchored by Bob Hoover, Chuck Moss, Bill Neal, Don Rathburn, Bob Featheringham and associates.

School officials closed Jefferson Union Thursday because 125 of the 405 students were absent sick.

Bill Winter Gets Highest FFA Honor

William (Bill) Winter, 21, young farmer of Route 1, Amanda, has been selected to receive the highest degree in the Future Farmer of America organization — the American Farmer degree.

Winter, a 1954 graduate of Walnut Twp. High School, will receive this high award at the National Convention of the Future Farmers of America at Kansas City, Mo. on October 15.

One out of every thousand FFA members is eligible to receive this coveted degree. Bill is the first Walnut FFA member to be awarded the American Farmer degree. Winners are selected on a basis of their leadership and scholarship abilities and their becoming established in farming. They must have a minimum of $1,000 invested in farming.

At the present time Bill is farming 147 acres in partnership. His present livestock program consists of 15 beef cows, 20 Chester White sows, and 11 dairy cows. Crops this year include 36 acres of corn, 25 acres of wheat, and 18 acres of oats.

In 1950, as a freshman in high school, Bill's farming program consisted of two Chester White gilts and litters, and 25 acres of corn and 15 acres of wheat on the one-third share. His labor income from these projects totaled $1,297.47.

THE FOLLOWING year he invested these profits in additional livestock and farm equipment. In succeeding years, he repeated this practice until at the present time he has $10,600 invested in livestock, machinery, and equipment.

While in high school, Bill served as president of the Walnut FFA chapter, president of his class, and was a member of the Pickaway County Honor Society. During his high school years, he was well known for the many championship awards which he won at both the Pickaway County and Ohio State Fairs with his Registered Chester White swine.

Winter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Winter, Route 1, Amanda, is married to the former Elaine Quillen of the Walnut community.

Ten members of the Walnut FFA Chapter and their advisor, Hugh D. Coffman, are making plans to be present at the National Convention when Winter receives this cherished award.

Legion Leadership 'College' Readied

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The American Legion expects 474 local post officers to enroll in its first leadership college. It will be held Saturday and Sunday in the Youth Center at the Ohio State Fairgrounds here.

The state headquarters said the student body would be divided into classes and taught six basic subjects related to the operation of local American Legion posts.

Atty. Gen. William Saxbe will address the group Saturday.

ADA Reports Its Boxscore On Ohio's 'Liberal' Solons

WASHINGTON (AP) — By ADA standards, Frank J. Lausche had a more liberal voting record in the Senate this past session than his Ohio colleague, John W. Bricker.

But on perhaps the most controversial issue of the session—civil rights — Republican Bricker gets ADA approval and Democrat Lausche receives a thumbs down.

ADA, as most people interested in politics know, stands for Americans for Democratic Action. The point of view is normally pro-New Deal, pro-Fair Deal, and pro-Democrat.

Each year, the ADA issues a report sizing up every member of Congress and testing him, or her, for the ADA brand of liberalism by their votes on certain bills.

For its Senate appraisal this year, ADA picked 12 pieces of legislation and scored each senator a "plus," meaning ADA agreement with the vote, or "minus," signifying disagreement.

This is the way Ohio's senators came out:

Lausche — five pluses, six minuses, and recorded as absent on one vote; Bricker—two pluses and 10 minuses.

Bricker's two votes with which ADA agreed were on civil rights. And in both instances Lausche went the other way.

One of these votes was on a motion to send the civil rights bill to the Senate Judiciary Committee for study—a move that would at least have slowed final passage. Bricker voted with the majority against the motion. Lausche was for it.

The other vote was on adoption of an amendment to permit jury trials for persons charged with interfering with Negro voting rights. Opponents of the amendment argued that southern juries simply would acquit in such cases. Supporters said every person is entitled to a jury trial.

In any case, Bricker voted against the jury trial and Lausche voted for it. The amendment, adopted, became a part of the civil rights law.

Lausche, however, was credited with a "plus" on another vote that had a direct connection with civil rights.

This was a measure to curb filibustering and was aimed directly at anti-civil rights southern senators. Lausche voted for it, Bricker helped the majority defeat it.

In the House, the ADA found only one Ohioan, T. Ludlow Ashley, Democrat, Toledo, with a perfect ADA record. Ashley got a "plus" on each of the nine votes which the organization used in scoring House members.

Four other Ohio Democrats in the House were given high ADA ratings. The sixth Ohio Democrat, James Polk, got only three "pluses."

Among Ohio Republicans in the House, the top performer in the ADA's view was Mrs. Frances P. Bolton. The wealthy Cleveland Congresswoman received seven "pluses" against only two "minuses."

But most of the others in Ohio's 17-member GOP delegation in the

Automation To Bring Advance In U.S., Rotary Club Told

"Why is today better than yesterday? Why will tomorrow, next year, and 10 years from now be even better?"

"Largely because of the great industrial advances continually being made and largely because of the steady progress, we are showing on our never-ending march to a higher standard of living."

This is the explanation offered by A. Richard Boerner, General Electric quality control specialist, who discussed "What Automation Means to You" in a talk before the Circleville Rotary Club, yesterday noon.

In pointing up what automation means Boerner explained how the recent intensive publicity it has been getting has been both good and bad.

He explained how industry, in its efforts to satisfy the ever-increasing demand for its products and services at a price the public can pay, recognizes automation as a necessity in many operations. Automation is not new, but just growing. Fear of it is no more valid now than it was almost 200 years ago when angry workers one night broke into the first textile plants in England to wreck Arkwrights power looms because they feared machines would eventually take over everyone's job.

BOERNER DEFINED automation as consisting of three elements, all dating from the early stages of the industrial revolution—Mechanization, the use of machine power in place of man; feedback, automatic self-adjustment; and programming, the causing of a machine to respond to a predetermined order of instructions.

To illustrate that automation, although designed to replace workers, actually increases employment in the long run, Boerner cited the Ohio Bell Telephone system. During the period that Ohio Bell increased automatic or dial phones from 60 per cent to 95 per cent, its employment increased from 8,000 to 22,000.

The late Philip Murray, former president of the CIO saw this when he stated: "I do not know of a single, solitary instance where a great technological gain has taken place in the United States that has actually thrown people out of work. The industrial revolution that has taken place in the U. S. in the past 25 years has brought into employment an additional 20 million people."

Boerner stated that automation is absolutely necessary if America is to continue to enjoy an ever-increasing standard of living.

Boerner—with the exception of two years spent in the Navy in World War II—has been with General Electric's Lamp Division since he received a degree in engineering from Iowa State College in 1943. He was chief engineer at the local GE plant at its start in 1948 and until 1954 when he was transferred to Lamp Division headquarters at Nela Park in Cleveland.

Boerner and his wife and three sons live in Euclid, Ohio. He has an active interest in the YMCA Indian Guides and serves as a trustee of the Beachland Presbyterian Church where he also sings in the choir.

Shutter Fans! Keep Eyes on Pumpkin Art

Photography bugs or just anybody with an old camera will have a chance to test his shutter-snapping ability in this year's Pumpkin Show.

An added event this Amateur Snapshot Contest. All that's required is a camera and an eye for an interesting Pumpkin Show scene or subject.

Prizes ranging from $5 to $20 will be awarded to amateur photographers who take the ten best snapshots during the Pumpkin Show.

Any number of pictures may be entered in the contest. They must be accompanied by negatives and all pictures become the property of the Pumpkin Show. Professional developing will be permitted.

ACCORDING TO Jim Shea, contest chairman, the event was added to the Pumpkin Show this year in order to develop a source of photos to meet the frequent requests from magazines and calendar publishers for pictures of the show.

Contest judges will be Pumpkin Show directors. Winners will be announced before December 31.

House were ranked way down. Gordon Scherer of Cincinnati received only "minuses" along with two absences.

Ohio Valley Seen Sharing New Boom

PITTSBURGH (AP)—An industry executive predicts a 50 per cent increase in aluminum consumption in the next few years, and adds "the Ohio Valley should profit considerably" from the coming boom.

I. W. Wilson, board chairman of Aluminum Co. of America (alcoa), said Alcoa is one of three aluminum producers now building smelting plants in the Ohio Valley that will use coal-generated electricity.

Addressing a meeting of bankers from the Pittsburgh area, Wilson said recent coal developments and the region's nearness to major markets mean "the Ohio Valley should profit considerably through increased industrial activity."

Widow Spiders Plaguing Area

BALTIMORE (AP)—Mrs. Richard Thompson, a married housewife in a suburban housing development invaded by black widow spiders, says she may call on the Army for help.

More than 100 of the insects with the sometimes-fatal bite were found in a section of the Victory Villa development within the last week.

The Baltimore County Health Department sent residents literature on how to deal with the spiders but said the department was not equipped to handle the job itself.

Wilberforce Granted $2500 Scholarship Fund

TOLEDO (AP)—Toledo industrialist Edward Lamb has donated $2,500 to a special scholarship fund at Wilberforce University. The donation will provide for 25 $100 financial aid scholarships.

Lamb, a trustee of Wilberforce, oldest Negro university in the nation, has given more than $25,000 in the past to the institution.

His Swat at Fly Costs Man $10

DETROIT (AP)—Harold Chandler had to pay $10 for assault and battery because he took a swat at a fly.

The trouble was that Chandler, 31, was in a restaurant at the time and he didn't hit the fly at all. His swat nearly unseated Frieda Mooney, 25, who was sitting on an adjoining stool.

Miss Mooney's escort Fred Boone, 35, wasn't impressed by Chandler's story of the fly. A scuffle resulted.

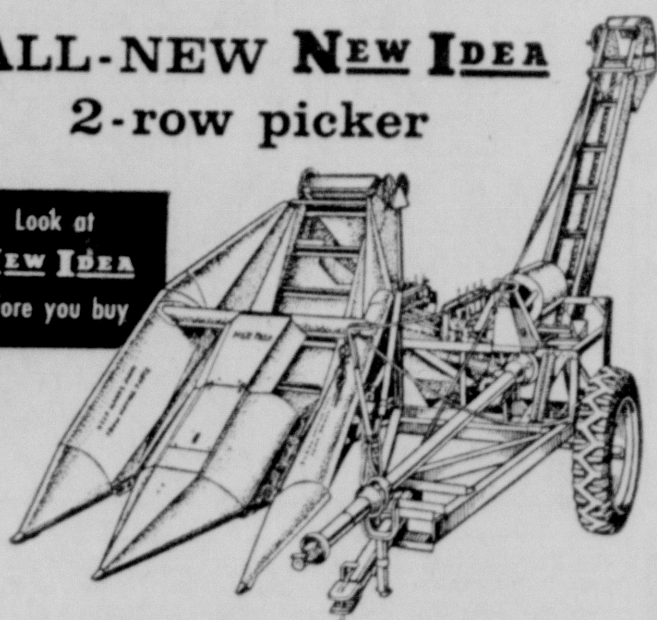

Chandler was fined by Recorder's Judge Elvin L. Davenport.
